Micah 4:1-4

Cllr Debbie Harlow

A reading from the Bible, from the Old Testament, from the prophet Micah:

In the last days the mountain of the LORD's temple will be established as chief among the mountains; it will be raised above the hills, and peoples will stream to it. Many nations will come and say,

“Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
to the house of the God of Jacob.

He will teach us His ways, so that we may walk in His paths.”

The law will go out from Zion, the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

He will judge between many peoples and will settle disputes for strong nations far and wide.

They will beat their swords into plowshares
and their spears into pruning hooks.

Nation will not take up sword against nation,
nor will they train for war anymore.

Everyone will sit under their own vine and under their own fig tree, and no one will make them afraid, for the LORD Almighty has spoken.

Blessing and Benediction

Rev'd Richard Sherlock

Called to receive love; sent to share it.
Called to hear of love in Christ; sent to declare it.
Called to experience love that will not let us go; sent to walk in it.
Called to know that he will love us no matter what; sent to live it.
Called to know the power of God's love; sent to be it.

Called by the love of God,
held by the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, filled with the Holy Spirit and sent to love our neighbour as ourselves.

May you all know God's blessing upon you,
and those you love, both now and always, Amen.

An Act of Remembrance

Lest we forget

Welcome

Rev'd Richard Sherlock (Knaphill Baptist Church)

Gathering Prayer

Rev'd Richard Sherlock

O Lord our God, we have gathered this day to recall the sacrifice of the men, women and children who have been maimed in body, mind or spirit, or who have died in War and conflict.

We recall the repercussions that have tumbled upon succeeding generations, including ours. Help us to let go of that which makes for evil and to be open to the Holy Spirit.

May the actions of all faithful people release the very best of what you have wrought within us, so that with Christ we may be one with you, the Holy Spirit and all Creation, working for a Kingdom of prosperity, peace and love.
Amen.

Psalm 46:1-5, 8-11

Cllr Saj Hussain

A reading from the Bible, the Old Testament, from Psalm 46

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

Therefore, we will not fear, though the earth give way
and though the mountains slip into the heart of the sea;
though its waters roar and foam, though the mountains quake.

There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God,
the holy dwelling place of the Most High.

God is within her, she will not fall;

God will help her at break of day.

Come and see what the LORD has done,
He makes wars to cease to the end of the earth;
He breaks the bow and shatters the spear.

“Desist! Cease your striving and know that I am God!

I will be exalted among the nations,

I will be exalted in the earth.”

The LORD Almighty is with us;
the God of our ancestors is our stronghold.

Act of Remembrance

Jonathan Lord MP

A reading from the Bible, from the New Testament, from the 1st letter of John:

“This is how we know what love is:

Jesus Christ laid down his life for us.

And we ought to lay down our lives for one another.

If anyone has material possessions and sees a brother or sister in need but has no pity on them, how can the love of God be in that person?

Brothers and sisters,

let us stop just saying that we love one another;

let us really show it by our actions.”

(1 John 3:16-18)

Friends, let us pause and remember in silence before God, all those who have laid down their lives for our peace and prosperity and for those who are suffering still.

They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.

They that now go away weeping,

and bearing forth good seed,

shall come again with joy.

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old.

Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.

At the going down of the sun and in the morning,

we will remember them.

We will remember them.

When you go home, tell them of us and say,

“for their tomorrow, we gave, and are still giving, our today.”

Collect

Rev'd Richard Sherlock

Eternal God, in whose perfect realm no sword is drawn but the sword of justice, and no strength known but the power of love: guide and inspire all who seek your kingdom, that peoples and nations may find their security in the love which casts out fear; through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen
