And don't forget to pray for the recipients.

Conversation Café

The next Conversation Café session will be on Monday 9th September at the new time of 12.30-1.30 and the new venue of The Vyne, Knaphill.

If you would like to find out more about this outreach to the Syrian refugees in Knaphill and Woking, or enjoy talking to people and would like to get involved please talk to Ruth Moore.

Hidden Disabilities

A "Sunflower" lanyard scheme has been set up for people with hidden disabilities (or parents with children with hidden disabilities such as Asperger's) so that they can be identified and helped with things like queuing and getting through large crowds.

It was initially introduced to help people get through busy airports, but is being trialled in supermarkets such as Sainsbury's and Tesco's. So if you notice someone in a queue with a sunflower lanyard, help them out by letting them go in front of you or ask if there is any other way you can assist them - especially if they have children with them.

Around the church

There have been a number of occasions recently where discarded food has been left in bins in the church creating some rather unpleasant smells, and something of a hygiene risk.

Please could all think carefully about how such material is disposed of, and remembering that the church is only cleaned monthly, perhaps empty the bins yourself?

Vacancy

St Hugh Catholic church are seeking to appoint an Office Manager to work on a part-time basis. For further information and/or an Application Pack, please contact: The Parish Office or email: sthughoflincoln.office@gmail.com.

Baptist Union Prayer Diary –

8 September

Education Sunday offers us an opportunity to celebrate all that is good in education, to give thanks for teachers and learners, educational leaders and support staff; to rejoice with those who succeed and provide reassurance for those who struggle. This Education Sunday we pray that, through God's power, all those who study or work in schools, colleges or universities, may flourish, and be open to knowing God's love as they are formed and re-formed.
